

THE DATE NIGHT MANIFESTO

A BOOSTER SHOT FOR RELATIONSHIPS

Sophia Ledingham

Are you child-free, or do you have one, two or more adorable mini-mes? Are you in your first committed relationship, or third-time lucky? Be it two or forty-two years together, there's a lot to discover from Date Night.

In her new book, The Date Night Manifesto, Sophia Ledingham chronicles Date Nights – hers and others – in upmarket and often fashionable places. Ranging from Hackney's Bistrottheque to Dublin's iconic Shelborne Hotel, to Amsterdam's infamous Supper Club, the author features some of the most desirable Date Night destinations. But setting, wherever yours might be, is only part of the solution.

All kinds of couples love the enriched connection that comes from Date Night.

Once the cloak of domesticity disappears, you'll find yourself revealing your romantic and attentive self. Using The Date Night Manifesto is a great way to discover new things about each other, even if you've been together for what feels like a lifetime. Whether you have clocked up double-digit anniversaries or are still savouring the wedding cake, the Manifesto's 16 principles will give you more to celebrate. The Date Night Manifesto will appeal to all couples, particularly those in established relationships, looking to reconnect, have fun and build stronger relationships.

"It's like an intelligent Sex and the City: funny and upmarket, yet enticing to the average woman."

Kelli Delaney, former editor of Glamour and Allure

"A positive approach to making a long-term marriage or relationship work."

Jill Foulston, former commissioning editor for Virago, Little, Brown and Penguin
