The Extremely Very Scrambled Up World of Little Doogs

Playing the Road Trip Game

Fiona Cummings and Ian Sanders

“Extremely, very excellent adventures by Fiona Cummings and Ian Sanders. Little Doogs and his chums are great fun and are destined for stardom.”

- Keith Chapman, creator of Bob the Builder, Fifi and the Flowertots and co-creator of Roary the Racing Car

The Schnoops will have you laughing your socks off! Meet Honey, a very confident bunny with a love of shoes. Then there's Schnoss, the ever-organised dog forever with a new business idea under his collar; Jezza, the art and snooze-loving giraffe; Trevor a multi-talented elephant who's equally comfortable behind his DJ decks or a stove. And not forgetting Little Doogs, a puppy with a love of collecting stuff for his ever-expanding scrap book. These are The Schnoops and welcome to the The Extremely Very Scrambled Up World of Little Doogs, a place where you never know what's around the corner but you can bet it will involve bacon sandwiches and a road trip somewhere.

The Schnoops is the brainchild of Fiona Cummings and Ian Sanders. In the first book of the series, Playing The Road Trip Game, Little Doogs is a puppy with a problem. All he wants is a place he can call home. The problem is that he and the rest of The Schnoops are always on the move in their funky old caravan. Schnoss has promised that this time things will be different. Unfortunately, though, his foray into the world of yoghurt-pot raincoats reaches a messy end and The Schnoops are on the move again.

About the Authors: Fiona Cummings (www.fionacummings.co.uk) has been writing for children for over 10 years. She is passionate about the power of books to enhance the world of children of all ages. Through them they can believe in their dreams and be reassured about their fears. Above all books can be fun!

This project is a collaboration between Fiona and Ian Sanders (www.iansanders.com); together they devised the characters and storylines. Ian runs his own business and marketing consultancy and is the author of business books. Ian relishes in turning random ideas into reality; this is the latest example of that!
