What we do:

- We're passionate about writing, editing and launching new authors. We provide professional editorial feedback to authors (unpublished and published) on their writing.
- We offer structural editing, copy-editing and proofing to prepare your manuscript for publication.
- We have over 60 editors, all hand-picked for their agenting, publishing or writing experience.
- We run specialist workshops for all genres on how to self-edit and submit to agents.
- We scout for leading literary agents.

Why come to us?

- Cornerstones is one of the UK's leading literary consultancies, founded in 1998.
- We work mainly by word of mouth within the book industry, collaborating with literary agencies and publishers such as: Annette Green, Felicity Bryan, Celia Catchpole, Macmillan, Orion, HarperCollins and more. We've helped to launch the careers of over 50 writers.
- We pride ourselves on our personalised service and ongoing support. We know how precious each manuscript is and we treat every writer individually, shaping our service around your requirements.
- We have a filter system and provide free feedback on the first chapter and synopsis. Even if we don't take on an author, we like to give some guidance on what to do and where to go next.
- We cater for all genres of adult fiction and non-fiction, and we also have a specialist children's division, Kids'Corner.
