

You have opted to have your book published by the best self-publishing firm in the UK. As a passionate writer, you want every aspect of your book to do you proud.

That means excellent presentation (no spelling mistakes, punctuation problems, etc.)

It also means that your narrative is strong; that your characters are convincing; that your settings are atmospheric. The better all these things are, the better your chances of achieving strong sales & excellent distribution.

The Writers' Workshop has teamed up with Matador to offer you an all-in-one editorial and copyediting service at a cut-price cost. We will help you achieve your publishing goals by providing you with detailed, expert, editorial advice. We will:

- Identify any structural editorial issues & suggest ways to deal with them
- Bring your attention to mistakes in spelling, grammar, punctuation, style, etc.
- Comment on the presentation of the manuscript
- Comment on any other aspects of the book that seem important.
- These comments will take the form of a full written report on your work. The report will be prepared by a professional, published author with long experience of helping fellow authors. You can also contact your editor by phone to discuss any aspect of their comments.

The Writers' Workshop is run by writers for writers. We cover every genre and every style. All of our 60 editors are published authors of distinction, with dozens of literary prizes and major shortlists between them, and there will always be someone that suits your book. Many of our editors teach creative writing at esteemed institutions, such as the University of Oxford, the University of East-Anglia, and the Arvon foundation.
